

Global Centre for Contextual Safeguarding

Durham
University

Contextual Safeguarding Network

Blog Proposal Form

Name
Organisation
Date
Proposed title of blog

** Please read the attached blog writing guidelines ****

Blog proposal (200 words): to include overview of content/argument, proposed style (i.e. narrative, diagrammatic, photo diary, etc.), overview of any case study or organisational data to be used (and permissions), relevance to Contextual Safeguarding and practice

--

How did you hear about the GCCS blog?
What name would you like to use for publishing? (state if you would like to be anonymous/use a pseudonym)
Does this blog post need to be authorised by your workplace/employer?

What next?

Katharine will contact you to discuss your proposal. If your proposal is accepted, we will agree a timescale for a first draft to be submitted. Once a draft is submitted Katharine or another member of the GCCS team will review your draft and come back to you with constructive comments. Once the blog is finalised it will be published on the GCCS website and publicly available.

Thank you for sharing your experience and learning with us!